

constitutional conversations

2011 Constitution Day Program

“Why Civic Education is Essential to a Healthy Democracy”

Williamsburg Library Theater
515 Scotland Street

Thursday, September 15th at 6:30 p.m.

Featuring:

William E. (Bill) White, Ph.D., Royce R. & Kathryn M. Baker Vice President
Productions, Publications, and Learning Ventures, The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation

Meg Heubeck, Director of Instruction, Youth Leadership Initiative, University of Virginia Center for Politics

Kelly Carmichael Booz, Director of Civic Education, Center for the Constitution at James Madison’s Montpelier

Julie Silverbrook, Director, Constitutional Conversations Program, William & Mary
Law School

Moderator: Dr. Beverly Thurston, Coordinator for History and Social Sciences, Virginia Department of Education

